This beautiful Majorcan sea view villa is located right above the well noted bay of Portals Vells in Sol de Mallorca with access to several sandy beaches, also known as three finger bay. The villa was built 30 years ago, on a unique flat plot by a renowned British architect. The spacious 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom villa, was specifically designed to be warm and cozy, with the 3 guest rooms on the ground level and the master bedroom on the top floor. In addition there several covered and uncovered terraces, with an outdoor bar, dining área, summer kitchen. The master bedroom occupies the entire first floor and enjoys a private terrace with sea views. There is the possibility to create further bedrooms should this be required. Additional features include 2 fireplaces, antique terracotta flooring throughout, a double garage, a fully equipped kitchen and a satellite system. This property needs to be updated and renovated, but could easily be used as it is with it's old and charming Majorcan aspect, since the property is in mint condition.
